

Storytelling Parties

A small group of storytellers will transport your children into places full of magic and intrigue. Places where mischievous fairies, horrible witches, masterful wizards, Knights of the Round Table or ghosts and ghouls live. Adventures and journeys are plentiful as your children become totally immersed in the story.

Throughout the performances the children are encouraged to take part and join in whether it's shouting out ideas, helping to look for things, making magic wands, coming along on the journey or helping to cast magic spells. They are very interactive and lots of fun.
